TOWER editors break with tradition

Traditionally, the yearbook staff develops a theme idea around which the "record of the year" is organized. Themes can be heavy (like last year's) or light, involved or simple, sophisticated or cute — or non-existent. After half a year of unsuccessful struggles to come up with a satisfactory theme, we gave up, and decided to "tell it like it was" — simply recording the year in pictures and print, without any magnificent interpretaton on our part. Thus, it is our intention to capture all that went into making 1984-85 the kind of year it was, and to leave the interpretation to you, the participants in the story.

Grads observe traditions old and new

In an emotional event highlighted by a standing ovation for graduate John Schmid, the Whitefish Bay Class of 1985 received diplomas on Thursday, June 6. Student speakers included E. Harvey, C. Azcueta, J. Jansen, and J. Strom, who gave talks on the topic "Attitudes, Perspectives, and Comparisons." After participation in the traditional ceremonies, closing with the nostalgia-producing slide show, over half the class adjourned to the All-Night Grad Party in the Armory. The all-night party, featuring food, games, and prizes, was engineered for the first time this year by a group of hardworking parents.

1. Graduates adjust their caps and gowns before the Processional. 2. P. Jarvis and company culminate a year's worth of hard work with the presentation of their Senior Slide Show. 3. A. Siesennop makes sure Dr. Grant gets her name right. 4. "Perspectives" by speaker J. Strom, focused on the need for world peace. 5. The Honor Ten: (front) J. Feller, E. Harvey, D. Trattner, C. Azcueta, T. Fraungruber, (back) K. McFarland, P. Bird, K. Graham, D. Kamper, M. Comerford. 6. The graduation class of 1985. 7. Senior John Schmid received a standing ovation along with his diploma. 8. Smiles for all, following the ceremony.

Students: it isn't much . . . but it's a living

Students — for 190 days a year, five times a week, six hours every blase day, they attend an institution known as School. They are forced to contend with irascible teachers, unfair grading practices, and even (gasp) reading. Even more terrifying, they are immersed in such intangibilities as e to the ninth power of i , how to walk and chew gum at the same time, and even such maddeningly philosophical questions as (oh no!) "What color was George Washington's white horse?" Actually, it's not all that bad — they don't have to do windows.

1. Industrious students take a gander at the answers to next Friday's test. Fed up with the strictures of school, students rebel by sitting three to a bench where Mrs. Jackson knows only two belong. 3. Room 334, Study Hall, where countless students have been imprisoned, some, never to leave. 4. His day done, this beleaguered student heads home, asking himself perhaps, "Was it worth it?"

Class of '86 tackles academic challenge

Junior year is notoriously known for its academically challenging curriculum; nevertheless, this year's junior class found plenty of ways to cope. In the midst of taking college entrance exams, balancing chemical equations, and learning the fine points of correct composition, they could be found relaxing, socializing, or engaging in activities best not related here.

Sophomores hit Media Center, streets

After spending last year "learning the ropes" as freshmen, the class of '87 encountered increased Media Center privileges, conquered geometry proofs, and were exposed to the inner workings of a frog. In addition, Whitefish Bay residents became wary as sophomores fine-tuned their driving skills on the streets, in the parking lots, and occasionally on other cars in the Bay.

Frosh endure restrictions, look ahead

As newcomers to Whitefish Bay High School, the freshman class suffered such restrictions as being trapped in study hall, confined to their own "frosh" cafeteria, and being offered little choice in course selection. But they survived, buoyed by the hope that in three years they, too, would catch senioritis.

In memory of Mike House

Mike House died March 28, 1985, after a year-long struggle with leukemia. The following is reprinted from the memorial card distributed at his funeral:

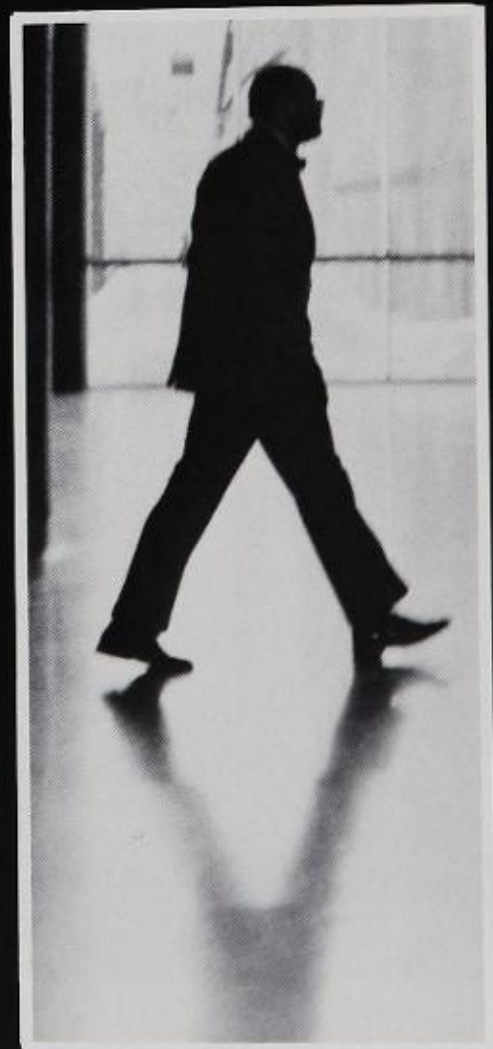

Don't Quit

*When things go wrong as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest, if you must, but don't you quit.
Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out:
Don't give up though the pace seems slow —
You may succeed with another blow.
Success is failure turned inside out —
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems so far;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit —
It's when things seem worst that you must not quit.*

FACULTY/ACADEMIC

Bay classes combine business, pleasure

Most WFBHS classrooms help students learn by including time for both work and play. This combination makes the learning process more exciting and beneficial, and enables students to experience the pleasures of learning and having fun at the same time.

Many enjoyable educational events take place during the school year. For example, one might remember the Bio 3 field trips to the Zoo, Mr. Byers' pancake breakfasts, demonstration speeches, science labs, bagel hops, history skits, and Mass Comm. productions. The darker side of the school year includes nerve-racking exams, frustrating research papers, and early morning detentions.

The Faculty/Academic section has endeavored to capture both sides of the classroom in its coverage — the business and the pleasure.

Together, through cooperation and patience, Bay students and teachers have made the learning process enjoyable. Teachers provide their students with pleasurable activities as they strive toward excellence. In the end, both students and teachers feel a sense of accomplishment.

Students, faculty vary academic life

Ordinary classroom life — lectures, homework, tests, etc. — has a tendency to bore even the most dedicated students, to say nothing of those of us who consider the school week as nothing more than a break between weekends. That's why the wise teacher will schedule a field trip every once in a while, or throw a party of two, or allow the students to express themselves in some way. It is this element of variety in the academic life which enables both students and teachers to enjoy their days at Whitefish Bay High School.

Mrs. Low replaced Mrs. Jackson as a guidance counselor when the latter became vice-principal. ACTIVITIES

Houndbusters gain twin victory in fog

Dense fog failed to dampen the Blue Dukes' enthusiasm as they triumphed over the Shorewood Greyhounds in a first-time combination of two Bay traditions: Homecoming and the Glory Cup game. Another Homecoming first was "Sports Week", an effort by Student Council to arouse more school spirit and participation. A different sport was featured each day of the week and the girls' varsity volleyball team was voted the best-looking.

Also in the hopes of attracting more students, the Youth Council revamped the Homecoming dance by holding an informal dance (no dates required) on Friday night following the game. Due to scheduling conflicts, the traditional Snake Dance, featuring skits such as "Days of Our Dukes", was moved to a non-traditional Wednesday night. The seniors won the float contest and the band's window was judged the best.

Youth Council alters tradition slightly

Because of the increase in attendance at the dances the past few years, Youth Council members put out all efforts to make this year no exception. Not only did they succeed, but they also increased attendance at the Homecoming and Sadie Hawkins dances by changing tradition a little. In the past it was customary that dates be brought. But because of the lack of attendance, Youth Council decided that everyone should be invited. Although this brought some mixed reactions, the student body seemed to enjoy it. Besides organized dances every month, a blood drive was also arranged. Many students and faculty members participated, making it one of the best ever.

New developments mark Council year

This year's Student Council was sparked by a new enthusiasm, provided by leaders C'za Azcueta, Dina Beers, Betsy Bach, and new adviser Mrs. Jackson, as demonstrated by good attendance at meetings other than picture day. Homecoming Week was changed to Sports Week, with a different fall sport featured each day. For Food for Families, a scale was built which weighed cans donated by juniors and seniors against those given by the lower two grades. Another new development was a calendar in the main hall to note activities and birthdays. The Council also helped organize several student-faculty meetings, Black History Week, and Special Olympics.

'Murphy's Law' towers over Room 331

Murphy's Law, which states that "whatever can go wrong will, and at the worst possible time," seemed to rule over Room 331 in 1984-'85. Faced with such distractions as broken typewriters, stolen telephones, misplaced cameras, and numerous arguments over the yearbook's theme, it's a wonder the 1985 Tower staff was able to put out a yearbook at all this year. However, perseverance paid off, and led by adviser Paul Fehlhaber and co-Editors Lisa Jones and Derek Kamper, the group finally achieved their goal. The book that you hold in your hands represents not only the "record of the year," but an investment of time and energy on the half of a small, but dedicated, yearbook staff.

AFS creates cosmopolitan atmosphere

The AFS Club welcomed four foreign students to WBHS this year: Inaki Juaregi, from the Basque region of Spain; Jakob Strom, from Sweden; and Anne Riethmueller and Antje Engelhardt from West Germany. In addition, club members, led by president Mike Myers and adviser Mrs.

Jan Fritz, participated in fundraisers, activities, and Milwaukee Week, during which Bay families hosted nine exchange students from Wisconsin's rural areas. The club sponsored the annual AFS Show and plans to send three students abroad this summer.

Frau maintains high German interest

The German Club, under the direction of Karla Mueller and Valzillig planned various fun-filled activities, such as a Christmas party complete with a visit from Santa Claus, a pizza party for the visiting exchange students from Germany, and a number of interesting noon-time meetings, at which some slides from Germany were shown. But the main event of the year came when the exchange students arrived from Weissenburg, Germany. Due to the dedication of German teacher Marion Pohlmann, the 1985 Weissenburg Exchange Program was a huge success for the 12th time. The exchange program is an excellent opportunity for students to travel to Germany, live in a German home, and take in some of the sights. Without Frau (as she is affectionally called by her students) and her hard work and devotion, this program would not be possible.

Students playing the numbers game

Under the direction of Mr. Byers, the Math Team completed a successful but inconsistent season, often hindered by underclass mathematical inexperience. The Team ended its competition with an 8th place finish at the state math meet. Mike Comerford and Kevin McFarland, the team leaders all season, tied for 1st at the meet with perfect papers. Either camera-shy or forgetful, the team members failed to show to have their picture taken.

French Club varies learning process

The French Club sought several different ways to experience French culture. They visited La Petite France to sample French Cuisine, corresponded with students in France to gain insight into the reading and writing of the language and into life there, and had an AFS student from France speak at a meeting to hear a "vraie française" parle and to hear her reaction to living in the U.S.

Thespians act, produce, support plays

According to Beth Casper, the Drama Club's Student Adviser, the group has several purposes: "We provide financial support for the various plays and we also act and produce them. When we aren't working on plays, we get together and have fun."

This year's events included a "get-acquainted" picnic at Klode Park, a Halloween costume party, a Christmas party, and a progressive dinner.

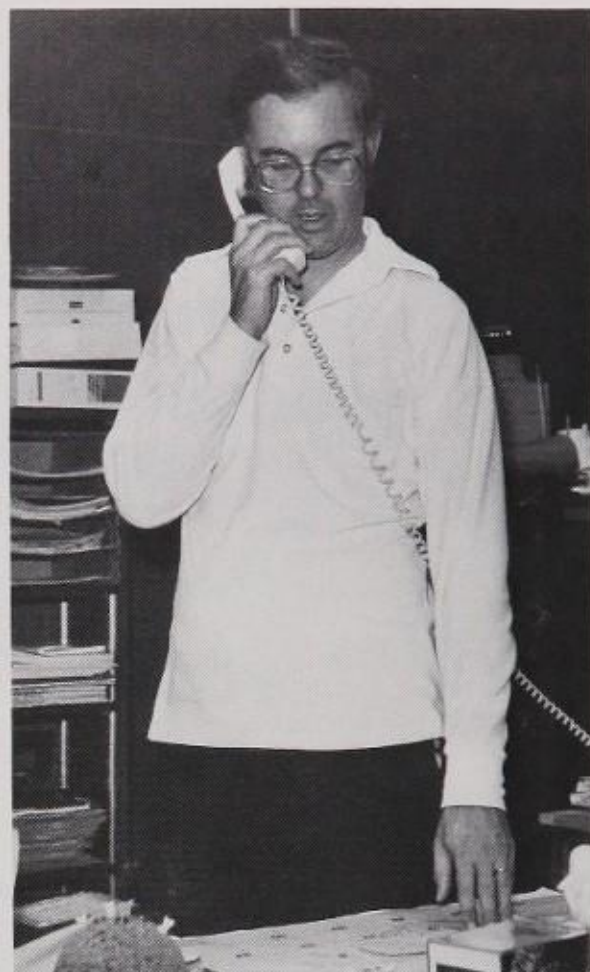

Mr. Frank Laycock is the Drama Club's adviser; officers included Ellen Harvey as President, Joana Jansen as Vice President, and Jennifer Kain as Secretary/Treasurer.

Enterprising students form new clubs

Several new activities were featured during the '84-'85 year, two of which were Video Club and Art Club.

The up-start Video Club, created by Media Services Director Charles Wedemeyer, enjoyed a surprising turnout of interested students. The club filmed some wrestling and gymnastics meets, one of which was broadcast over the Viacom cable TV systems.

Art Club was the creation of senior Maria Elger, who was searching for ways in which to pursue her interest in art. Together the group went on several field trips and painted murals in locations around the school.

Assemblies serve to inform, entertain

In addition to the annual back-to-school orientation assembly and the Student Council elections assembly in May, various other assemblies were presented in 1984-85. The three visiting AFS students and the four seniors who spent time in foreign countries last year showed slides of their countries, and Mr. Walter Peltz gave a moving speech about his imprisonment in a Nazi death camp during World War II. In the fall, several WBHS students spoke at an assembly presented by a neighborhood alcohol awareness committee, and later in the year seniors listened as plans for a Class of '85 all-night graduation party were unveiled.

Students 'put on the ritz' at Prom '85

With much hard work and amateur salesmanship, the junior class overcame seemingly overwhelming financial difficulties to put on one of the most highly-attended proms in recent years. The class was therefore truly able to live up to the prom's theme of "Puttin' on the Ritz." King Doug Lillydahl and Queen Mary Moran led the Grand March and reigned over the festivities at the War Memorial Center as the band Image entertained the promgoers.

PERFORMING ARTS

"Thieves' Carnival" thieves steal show

For the second year in a row, a fall production was delayed by a broken bone, as "Thieves Carnival" was postponed for two weeks after J. Kain broke her toe in a freak backstage accident. The extra two weeks gave the actors time to perfect their lines, and the play enjoyed two successful nights. The play, an amusing French comedy directed by Mr. Frank Laycock, centers around three thieves posing as guests of the wealthy Lady Hurf. Although their brilliant scheme is foiled in the finale, everyone lives happily ever after.

Pro performance despite complexity

After just six weeks of practice, over 100 actors, musicians, artists, and dancers performed "Kiss Me, Kate", the dramatic parody of Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew". Under the joint directorship of Frank Laycock, Randal Swiggum, and professional choreographer Craig Kienzle, the cast and crew produced the highly-demanding musical. Because of its complexity, "Kiss Me, Kate" is not usually performed at the high school level, but this year's talented group of students, led by Jenni Keene and Jay Irwin in the dual lead roles, managed it successfully. "Kiss Me, Kate" features a company of romantically-entangled actors touring in Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew", who brawl and kiss and make up in both sides of the plot.

Swiggum takes Bay choirs by storm

1. Concert Choir basses pretend to work hard. 2. Mr. Swiggum shows his stuff. 3. The joy of Women's Choir.

The WFB choir students enthusiastically welcomed their new director, Mr. Randal Swiggum, a Wisconsin native who previously taught at Madison Memorial High School and at an elementary school for the gifted. Mr. Swiggum's new responsibilities included directing the high school choirs, the first and third grade music programs at Cumberland Grade School, the musical portion of "Kiss Me, Kate", and the two madrigal groups. He also organized, for the first time at WFB, a men's choir.

The high school choirs performed a packed schedule of concerts while working on extra activities as well. Accompanied by a harpist in several of their concerts, the Women's Choir enjoyed a weekend retreat-rehearsal in October and a Christmas performance at Northridge Mall. The Concert Choir gave a combined concert with the talented North Division Choir at the Grain Exchange Room. Mr. Swiggum also arranged an extra bonus for the two choirs: a workshop given by Alice Parker, a famous American composer.

Students had a chance to participate in three smaller music ensembles. The Madrigal 1 group, made up of selected singers, performed in regular concerts as well as around the community. The freshman Madrigal 2 group and the Madrigal 1 both went to the Solo Ensemble Music Contest. Choir members and non-choir people formed the Men's Choir.

Gilbert resigns, band tradition lives on

In his farewell year at Whitefish Bay (having announced his resignation in early spring), Jay Gilbert led his bands through a typical year. The bands performed during football and basketball games, including a visit to Madison for UW-Madison's Band Day. In addition to their fall, winter, and spring concerts, band members competed in the Solo/Ensemble Festival. In February, the UW-Madison Marching Band performed its annual concert. Band members participated in various fundraising activities, including a car wash, a fruit sale and a pizza sale to round out the year.

This year's orchestra, the biggest string group ever at WFB, started school off with a trip to see "Amadeus", the award-winning film about the life of Mozart. Conducted by Mr. Chase, they gave six concerts, including a combined performance with the North Division and WFB choirs. The students worked for three days before one concert with guest conductor Dr.

Fischbach, a distinguished professor of music. In that same concert, the Chamber Ensemble, a smaller orchestra composed of selected students, celebrated Bach's 300th birthday with a special piece by Bach, featuring a difficult harpsichord solo. Orchestra members also competed successfully in the District and State Solo Ensemble Contests.

Spring production greets new director

The spring play, "The Man Who came to Dinner" welcomed a new director, Mr. John Bohan, who found an eager cast and crew waiting for him. They had only 5½ weeks to transform a miscellany of cameo characters into an amusing and semi-coherent story. The rehearsals were demanding and the work rigorous, but thanks to a dedicated cast and crew, "The Man" was an entertaining and 'laughable' success.

Forensics, Debate demonstrate talent

After competing successfully in the Coaches' Tournament, The Whitefish Bay Forensics Team breezed through the Subdistrict and District Tournaments to qualify for State. Ten weeks of hard practice paid off as the majority of the team, led by J. Friedberg with a gold medal for a perfect score, earned silver and bronze medals.

The Whitefish Bay Debate Team also had a very successful season, the novice and varsity teams placing either first or second in three of the four tournaments. The State varsity team, including two freshmen and veteran K. McFarland, was very competitive in the State Tournament.

Hot action greets cool weather

Surging through the vicissitudes of fall's weather, Bay's sports teams delivered plenty of strenuous action and successful results, as they strove in mud, fog, cool pools, and hot gyms to uphold the school's winning traditions. Cheered on by cheerleaders and fans, the boys' and girls' sports teams started the school year with notable individual and team efforts in both conference and post-season play.

Varsity Football

Overcoming the pre-season loss of quarterback F. Karoly, the Varsity Football team posted a 7-1 mark and retained possession of the Glory Cup. However, a single loss to Rosa West once again kept the team from finishing 1st in conference and, thus, from entering the playoffs. J. Travia, T. Clifton, C. Kealty, D. Haliday, K. Noonan, and T. Drake were named to the All-Conference team. Haliday and Kealty were also named All-Area and Special Mention All-Area, respectively.

JV Football

For the first time in many years the JV Football team finished with a perfect 6-0 record. Included in this streak was a thrilling, come-from-behind, one point victory over Tosa West. The team seemed to greatly enjoy playing in spite of the stern expressions in the picture.

Varsity Soccer

While finishing short of their goal of repeating as state champions, the Boys' Varsity Soccer team still had a very successful season. Led by All-State player Tom Mitch, the team won the Madison tourney for the first time ever, the Homestead tourney, and Conference.

Girls' Varsity Volleyball

Coached by Dante DelaPasqua, the Girls' Varsity Volleyball team placed third in a very competitive conference with a 16-8 record. Although their tournament play was unremarkable, the eight seniors and six juniors pulled together to win the regionals. Three players, J. Connell, J. Shanahan, and K. Juzenas, made all-conference.

Boys' Varsity Volleyball

Under the leadership of returning coach John Simon, the predominantly junior team, led by seniors Tim "Biba" Berry and Dann Jacobson, captured the consolation trophy in the state tournament. Inexperience proved to be the spikers' key factor in their disappointing 17-25 record.

Boys' JV Volleyball

Behind the unstoppable smashes of the dynamic duo, R. Grass and A. Plesko, the JV-ers coasted through a victorious season of 34-8. Coach K. Augustine proved himself a capable coach in only his second year in the sport. "Augie is awesome!" claims Dan "Tubs" Farrell.

The Girls' Varsity Tennis team capped off a very successful season with a 4th place finish at state. Singles players K. Goldstein and T. Mann, along with the doubles team of M. Lenard and P. Dooley, had earned the trip to state in the Cedarburg sectional where the team finished 2nd. The Lenard-Dooley duo went on to capture 3rd place at state. However, it was truly a team effort and the instruction of Coach Lohr that brought the netters an 8-4-25 record and 1st place in conference.

Under the leadership of Coach Buetow, the Girls' JV Tennis team compiled a 59-42 record. The girls experienced the pressure of high school matches and sharpened their games in anticipation of filling the spots on varsity vacated by graduating seniors. Hopefully, they also had some fun while playing.

Girls' Swimming

Trying to find a senior on the Girls' Swimming and Diving team was like trying to convince Mr. Koerner that the North actually won the Civil War. Made up predominantly of freshmen and sophomores, the team featured only one senior, diver N. Sinclair. While the youth movement may have hampered this season's results, it also left many observers with great hope and expectations for upcoming seasons.

Boys' Cross Country

The 1984 season was a successful one for the Dukes. Posting a 84-14 record, the Harriers were ranked as high as fourth in the state during the course of the season. Led by seniors Tim Treanor, Steve Jossart, Jeff Feldman, Pat Jarvis, and Mike Stenz, Bay cruised to a second place finish at both conference and sectionals, but finished a disappointing twelfth at state. Next year will be a rebuilding one for Bay due to the loss of seven seniors. The Dukes will be helped, though, by the junior trio of Rob Helf, Brian Ressler, and John Reckmeyer, who turned in many fine performances this year.

Girls' Cross Country

Under the leadership of coach Paal Hanson, the relatively inexperienced Girl's Cross Country team showed they had potential. Led by three time All-Area star, C'za Azqueta, the Harrierettes compiled a 45-42 record as well as a fourth-place finish at conference. The future looks bright for this team as they will be losing only two seniors to graduation.

Dukes dominate in last of suburbans

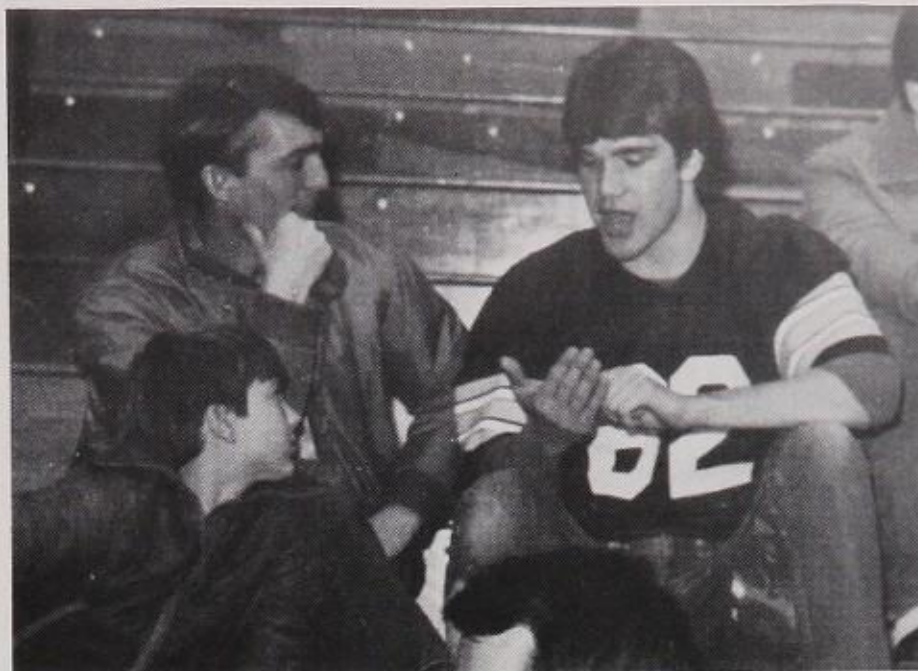

The 1984-1985 winter sports athletes made their mark in the last Milwaukee Suburban Conference. Through long and hard practices from the months of November to March, these athletes found that the rewards of these practices were well worth their effort. Winning the conference titles for the Dukes were the Boy's Swim team and the Girl's Gymnastics team, while all of the other sports managed to finish at least in the top four places.

Under the direction of Coach Nagle, the 1984-1985 Girls' Basketball team had a most successful season. The season was highlighted by a number of members making the All-Conference teams such as forward/guard Julie Shanahan making the first team, while center Tiffany Stone and forward Sarah Brinker both made the second team. Shanahan also made Honorable mention on the All-Area team. Due to a first loss game in Regionals the team didn't advance to sectionals, however they did maintain a successful 15-3 Conference record, while placing second in the Conference tournament.

Gymnastics

Under the direction of returning Coach Bradley, the 1984-85 Varsity team had another impressive season.

The team managed to finish first in the Conference meet, and along with qualifying as a team for Sectionals, Bay had four individual qualifiers: K. Weickardt for All-Around, N. Sinclair for Uneven Bars, K. Steinmetz for Vault, and G. Kuber for Floor. Bay sent one member, Weickards to the State Tourney, while the team as a whole was the strongest WFB has probably ever seen, reaching a record high of scoring over 107 points.

Coaches encourage, inspire athletes

Coaches are a lot like parents. They forget your name and call you somebody else's. They worry about you getting enough food and sleep, and make sure you get plenty of exercise. Warning team members to stay out of trouble, these temporary guardians often punish those who fail to heed. Braving all kinds of weather to watch their "kids" play, coaches often become emotionally upset with those who they believe are unfairly preventing their players from succeeding. They mother you when you're hurt and give fatherly advice, even when you don't really think you need it. These leaders like to be liked, but aren't afraid to make some unpopular decisions. Being a parent is a tough job; so is being a coach.

Girls' Varsity Soccer

After having their 64-game winning streak snapped early in the season, the team rebounded to tie for 1st in Conference. With the return of a few injured players and the leadership of All-American Allison Cartes, the girls continued to improve in the playoffs.

Girls' Varsity Soccer (Front) K. Juzenas, J. LaLoggia, J. Moburg, T. Fraungruber, M. Ehlinger, J. Nelson, D. Lyons; (Row 2) A. Cartes, J. McBride, K. vonEstorff, M. Gama, D. Schrap, J. Roemer, J. Shanahan; (Row 3) Coach D'Amato, T. Smick, J. Caulfield, M. Mayo, K. Steinmetz, H. Irwin, R. Jolley, P. McBride, R. Rellin, A. Moder

Girls' JV Soccer

The Girls' JV team completed a very successful season, finishing 1st in conference, with an undefeated record. The only blemish on their record was a 2-2 tie against Hartland. The team later avenged the tie with a convincing win at Hartland. First year coach Rudolf helped teach the skills needed for success.

Girls' JV Soccer (Front): B. Tighe, G. Kamper, C. Calvey, J. Garces, C. Kersten, P. Klahorst, J. Wexler; (Row 2) S. Doyle, A. Evers, J. Franke, T. Haschker, A. Belfus, T. Stone, J. Poland, S. Hickey; (Row 3) K. Martin, L. Stross, J. Speyer, J. Kersten, E. Baumann, J. DeNomie, M. Driesen, Coach Rudolph.

Girls' Frosh Soccer

An extremely talented crop of freshmen brought hope of continuing Bay's soccer dynasty. Several girls played on the varsity and JV teams, and the frosh team finished with an 8-1-1 record.

Girls' Frosh Soccer: (Front) E. Tripp, A. Schmidt, A. Whalen, M. Driessen, J. Garces, B. Mathius, T. Haschker; (Row 2) M. Barr, A. Beauchamp, N. Devitt, E. Kelly, B. Devitt, B. Yablansky, C. Ewig; (Back) C. Knop, C. Prindville, P. Kritek, M. Goodwin, J. Ruhland, A. Krosnosky, L. Rice, Coach Worman.

Girls' JV Track

Preparing for upcoming years, the JV team practiced hard to regain WFBay's high track standards. Coaches Thomas, Hansen, and Wolf gave inspiration to the new and enthused team, consisting mostly of freshmen.

Girls' JV Track: (Front) A. Flemming, T. Larscheid, G. Holder, A. Shidler, M. Howard, H. Gregory, B. Frafjord; (Row 2) Coach Wolf, C. Cebrowski, I. Rozite, S. Plaga, A. Reiter, S. Smaida, J. Doherty; (Back) Coach Lenartz, V. Vairavan, S. Baldridge, Coach Thomas, Coach Hansen.

Boys' JV Tennis

The Boys' JV Tennis team appeared to be very loose and relaxed under easy-going Coach Specter. When it came time to playing, though, the netters became very serious and pushed the Varsity players and each other.

Boys' JV Tennis: (Front) D. Mertens, J. Armour, M. Meixner; (Row 2) J. Hartung, T. O'Conner, P. Rosensteel, J. Margolis, M. Hoffman; (Back) C. White, C. Feldott, S. Marchese, J. Handel, A. Plesko, M. Franke, Coach Specter.

Boys' Varsity Tennis

The 1985 Boys' Tennis team seemed to be off to a running start in the beginning of the season. Under the new leadership of Coach Hinkley, the Dukes made a crushing impact, managing to capture 3rd in the Conference meet. They went on to take another 3rd place finish in Sectionals, while the doubles team of Pat Krill and Scott Gorvett was able to take part in the State tournament.

Boys' Varsity Tennis: (Front) P. Soik, J. Schumaker, P. Krill; (Row 2) P. Barthelemy, S. Gorvett, Barthelemy, A. Shidler; (Back) D. Pinkus, T. Goulet, M. Hughes, D. Braeger, R. Grass

Girls' Varsity Track

The key factors in the successful season of the Girls' Varsity track team was their well-rounded team. They showed us their versatility by winning the indoor conference title and by winning the Suburban Conferen-cerelay title outdoors.

Girls' Varsity Track: (Front) B. Friedman, A. Bicha, T. McVicker, S. Kops, L. Collins, K. Hue-depohl; (Row 2) Coach Lennartz, A. Schuetz, C. Cebrowski, N. Elger, E. McLean, K. Bluhm, C. Azcueta, J. Doherty; (Back) Coach Wolf, A. Bleier, J. Mertens, A. Mayo, B. Frafjord, A. Sie-sennop, S. Leslie, T. Johnson, B. Mathius, A. Eaton, B. Mulvanny, Coach Thomas, Coach Hansen.

Boys' Varsity Track

Despite a young team and a lack of printers, the Bay Boys' Varsity track team managed to hold their own in both the indoor and the outdoor seasons. The distance runners and the field events proved to be enough to enable the Dukes to consistently place in conference meets and invationals.

Boys' Varsity Track (Frnt): P. Jarvis, Coach Zamzow, D. Haliday, B. Miller, E. Juzenas; (row 2) B. Ressler, T. Garncarz, M. Yost, J. Watts, M. Myers, D. Nelson, S. Berlowski, R. Helf, J. Feldman, M. Stone; (Row 3) E. Nevalainen, T. Treanor, J. Ash, J. Reck-meyer, J. Swenson, M. White, J. Loew, S. Jossart, F. Karoly.

Boys' JV Track

The JV track team is truly a team of dedicated athletes. They don't usually get their names or pictures in the paper, and with track being an individualistic sport and several members of the JV team being shuttled between JV and varsity, they don't gain the sense of team that serves as a guiding bond for other JV and frosh teams. They compete for the enjoyment and visions of future glory days.

Boys' JV Track: (Front) R. Piltz, D. Simon, M. Krzoska, S. Bertini, A. McCown; (Row 2) C. Zito, J. Halcomb; (Back) K. McKenna, D. Moburg, J. Cira, J. Bourne, C. Desch, A. Marchese, J. Hibscher.

Baseball

The Bay baseball team got off to an early, impressive 6-0 start. With continued strong pitching, this senior-dominated baseball club, known for its powerful hitting attack, should once again challenge for the Conference title.

Baseball: (Front) Coach Albrightson, D. Stefanczyk, M. Obst, D. Nelson, J. Travia, M. Meyers, J. Ash, I. Stross; (Back) Coach Klode, Coach Parsons, M. DeLaPasqua, D. Loyda, C. Kealty, C. Woelffer, P. O'Neill, S. Koerner, M. Waters, T. Berry.

Golf

With four returning seniors and good depth, the season looked very promising for the Varsity Golf team. However, with inconsistent play, the team was unable to reach its potential and step up from good golf to great golf.

Varsity Golf: G. Dybul, M. Ellis, D. Farrell, K. Farrell, M. McDonough, M. Rieke, R. Trentadue.

The JV Golf team finished with a 10-1 record. The underclass linksters will be looking for greater challenges next year with the advent of a new 12 team jv conference

JV Golf: (Front) B. Mueller, M. Knop, J. Ehle; (Back) J. Prochnow, A. Dolberg, J. Evers, J. Librizzi, E. Santiago.

Q: What Russian immigrant traveled all the way to Whitefish Bay to cheer on the Blue Dukes at Homecoming? A: Ed Grinbukh. Thanks for the inspiration, Eddie!

Special thanks also to Laura Jones for lending a hand without even having to be asked!

The 1985 TOWER staff would like to thank the following for making our yearbook experience possible: Cilento Photography, for (almost) always answering our distress calls; Mr. Whittemore, for his patience and good advice; the WFBHS maintenance staff; Eric Juzenas, our ever-faithful photographer and last-minute print maker; Hardee's and Upper Crust --- you sustained us on Saturday deadlines; ditto for the music of Bruce Springsteen; the Sanford's Rubber Cement Company for not going out of business; and, of course, P.F. and family.
